

HERITAGE COMMISSION MINUTES

January 26, 2017

The Enfield Heritage Commission met on January 26, 2017 at 4:30 PM in the Whitney Hall Conference Room. Those in attendance were: Marjorie Carr, Mary Ann Haagen, Linda Jones, Suzanne Hinman, Shirley Green, and Meredith Smith, Chair. The December minutes were approved as written with one typo corrected.

Enfield Center Town House

Meredith reported that the National Register application being prepared by Andrew Cushing was not ready for the December meeting of the NH Historic Advisory council's review but it was expected to be presented at their March meeting.

Lakeside Park Update

Meredith reported on the NH DOT schedule for repairs to Main Street scheduled for the summer of 2017. There will be no access to the Lakeside Park until August except by foot traffic.

Annual Award

Andrew Cushing has been notified that he will receive the Historic Preservation Award. He will attend Town Meeting to receive the award.

Enfield Shaker Scenic Byway Update

A meeting of the Enfield Shaker Scenic Byway was held on January 24, 2017. Three members of the Heritage Commission are also members of the Byway Advisory Board. They are Marjorie Carr, Mary Ann Haagen, and Meredith Smith. Meredith was elected chair of the Advisory Board with Mary Ann Haagen as Vice Chair. The Advisory Board has one year from January 2017 to comply with the requirements of NH DOT for designation as a Scenic Byway to with the State. Presently, the Shaker Scenic Byway is on the list to be de-designated as a scenic byway due to lack of active participation. The Advisory Board is the first step in getting te byway back in good standing. Work will begin immediately on this project.

Enfield Shaker Museum Update

Shirley Green, Enfield Shaker Museum Board member, informed the Commission of the up-coming Snowshoe Fest, to be held at the Museum on Saturday, January 28.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Meredith Smith, Chair
